

Baird Associates, Inc.

33 University Road, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts

UNiversity 4-0101

March 39, 1956

Dear George,

In accordance with your letter of March 19, 1956, please be advised that we concur with your findings on Item 2 and have enclosed our credit memorandum in the amount of $45.10 for adjust invoices previously rendered.

STATINTL

STATINTL

STATINTL

Item 1, claim for [REDACTED] is not in order. You will note from the straight time schedule that [REDACTED] was paid at the rate of [REDACTED] per hour. Overtime claim at [REDACTED] is therefore correct as claimed. It is possible that [REDACTED] was confused with [REDACTED]

STATINTL

STATINTL

STATINTL

STATINTL

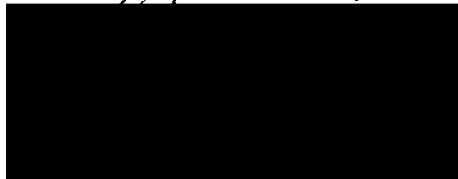

Item 3 in the amount of [REDACTED] overclaim has been found not to be in order. The claim should have been for 4 hours, not 15 hours.

Therefore, no adjustment is required for Items 1 and 3.

The above has been cleared through your auditor.

Yours very truly,

BAIRD ASSOCIATES, INC.

STATINTL

JMM:nw
Enc.